

The Mouse And The Musical Band: A Childrens Novel For Ages 5-7

A book about a little mouse and his musical band. Do you have a friend to whom is hard to be patient with? Try being patient with him, because patience is important in relationships. Meet the rabbit and his friends who want to sing in a musical band. They rehearse at the rabbit's home, but the mouse is always late and he is not playing well. All of the animals are angry with him, but the rabbit asks his friends to have patience with the little mouse. After one of them makes the mouse cry, the rabbit starts helping the mouse to play the drum better. With much patience and practice, the mouse learns how to play the drum well. This book teaches how to be patient with others who need help. The kids learn that we are different and not everyone can do the same things as we do. When we show patience to others, they will be encouraged and will do things better. Try this book and teach your child to be patient with others or when he is waiting for something to happen.
