

Jamie and Anna are Time Runners - they keep history moving in the right direction. Their latest mission takes them to Britain in the 1950s, during the Cold War. Its a time Anna knows well - its when shes from before she fell through the cracks in time. But somethings terribly wrong. Why is a Russian spy attending a dinner party held by the man in charge of Britains nuclear development? Why is a ghostly image of Anna being dragged away by grotesque imp-like creatures? Why does the mysterious Mr Prophecy never leave his room? And why is there a corridor reaching back through time hidden in the cellar? If Jamie and Anna dont find out quickly, it could be too late. It could be the end of the world...
