

In this children's short story it is the very last night Ellie would sleep her bedroom as tomorrow she is moving to a new home. Looking out of her bedroom window for the very last time at night, Ellie suddenly hears a funny popping noise, the noise starts to get louder Ellie got out of bed again and looked out of the window. "Whatever is the noise that Ellie can hear?" Ellie looks again and sees the moon shake from side to side. What is happening to the moon? Will anybody else have noticed the moon go pop? If you are looking for great short bedtime stories then this is the book for you. Author Ann, has taken inspiration from her grandchildren when writing this book and is a firm favourite with her 8 grandchildren.
