

Things I Must Ask U! Part VI

May I ask what R whom do U believe in? Do U think Mother Nature had something to do with everything existing? If U do feel this way then what about the beginning of time, how do U think things generated back then? Im asking all this to see if God is in your life. Is He Someone U say hi to every now and then? Is He Someone U only call on when youre in trouble? Is He Someone youve always been curious about but didnt know how to meet Him? Is He only like a fairy tooth godmother to U? Only want Him when U need something! My friend I truly hope if U ever felt anything feel me now. God is real and Hes only a prayer away. Hes just waiting on U to cry out to Him and call on His name. A name thats above every name, a name that every knee shall bow to and every tongue shall confess to, a name that needs no introduction, a name that the wind and the sea obeys. In these last and evil days where any and everything is happening its almost scary to leave your home at night and those that do sometime takes some kind of protection with them in fear of being attacked R killed. It used to B a time when a group of boys would see a man walking down the street coming towards them they would cross over to the other side but now when a man is walking down the street and sees a group of boys hell cross over to the other side. Were living in perils times my friend and if U dont have the Lords hands on your life for protection, youre an open target for the enemy. Cant U see how people will take a life without any remorse? This book is written to put a little sumthin sumthin on your mind and for U to think if God would come today would U-B ready R would U-B like some of them thats in the graveyard that thought the same thing of Ill get it together later.
