

Q.T. Patootie is an easy rhyming story about a little girl who wishes she had a normal name like everyone else. Its the first day of kindergarten and Q.T. is not only scared, shes terrified. Two years earlier, while playing on the playground, she was teased about her name and has been embarrassed by it ever since. But now she has a plan. She has decided she will only go by her initials. She thinks her problems are solved until she walks into the classroom and sees the sign on her desk. In giant letters for everyone to see is her name. What will she do?
