

When Tamisin discovers real wings growing from her back she wants to know what is making her supposedly normal life so weird. But before she can piece together the facts, she is kidnapped by goblins and brought to the land of fairies, goblins and many other magical creatures... including her real mother, Titania, the fairy queen. As she falls in love with Jak, whos half goblin, and realizes the depth of her human parents love for her, she finds that having a set of beautiful wings suddenly sprout from your shoulder blades isnt all bad, and there are many good reasons to fly....
