

Nine-year-old Molly Jo Daisy learns from her teacher that kids can do more than just homework and play. Her teacher, Ms. Beverly, instructs the class to start working on their dreams right now. She says, Why wait till youre older to start on your dreams? Let the magic unfold. Take flight with your wings. But Molly Jo is worried and doesnt know how to begin or where to start. She is frustrated and disheartened until she talks it over with her Grandma. Then with the help of her family, Molly Jo sets out to make an amazing difference in this great big world. How she works through her frustrations is a lesson anyone can learn from. What she achieves is a little miracle. This book is written in verse and is ideal for children from ages 5 -10. Details about three free bonuses at back of book: (1) Downloadable and printable coloring pages, (2) Free mp3 narration of the story as read by the author and (3) Questions for kids about what they learned from Molly Jo.
