

Sams Magic Mirror

Sams friends nominate her to be class president, but Sam cant see what everyone else does. What makes her special? Sam learns the hard way that everything she needs to be a good leader is right there staring back at her from the mirror, if she can just stay true to herself. This book teaches young girls about friendships, leadership, confidence and being themselves. Ideal for girls ages 6-9, the story comes to life with the help of full color illustrations throughout. Join Sam on her journey to find out what makes a good leader, and whether or not shes got what it takes to be class president! More information online at emilymadill.com
