

Soleri

On an ordinary day, while their parents are out, Wesley uses his fathers transducer in the robot he is building for the school science fair. Upon putting in the transducer a combination of cell phone signals, the robot, and a freak meteor storm; Wesley, Macy, their dog Pugston and a companion are teleported to another planet. Wesley and company meet the leader of the Solerians named Giradius on the planet Soleri, in the Heledrium Galaxy, which is 120 light years from the Milky Way. Giradius tells them of the Tojinians, a warring race, who are holding the Solerians as slaves and trying to amass all the planets Setrinous, a high protein grain. The teens are compelled to help the Solerians in their fight from tyranny and to get back home. Will he and the others survive the perilous catacombs, creatures, and Tojinian guards? Will they make it home alive?
